14:00-14:30 Keynote: Geopolitics, knowledge security and global dynamics - The case against academic freedom

Academic freedom is typically framed in positive terms – as essential for a well-functioning academic system. In this keynote, Jeroen challenges this taken-for-granted assumption and reflects on the lack of research on the topic itself. Rather than focusing on defending academic freedom, he invites participants to consider whether a shift toward discussing academic duties might offer more meaningful insights for both scholarship and policy.

- Jeroen Huisman, Professor of Higher Education at the Centre for Higher Education Governance Ghent (CHEGG)

14:30-15:30 Panel I: Reflecting on higher education policy in Europe in geopolitically challenging times
